

Birmingham Airport Limited – Privacy Notice

Department – Sustainability – Vortex Protection Scheme

Birmingham Airport is collecting your personal data. When we collect personal data, we are obliged legally to provide you with certain information, it is called the “Right to be Informed”. That information is contained in the below Notice. If any of the information we provide to you is not clear enough, there are contact details for Birmingham Airports Data Protection Officer further down this Notice, please do not hesitate to make contact and ask for further information.

1. Why we need it - the purpose of processing

We will need your personal data at the time of the suspected Wake Vortex damage to be able to contact you in the future when your property becomes eligible for the scheme. This data will then be used to track the progress of the works as well as dealing with any matters arising during the delivery of the scheme.

2. Why we’re allowed to process your personal information in this way – the legal basis

- Article 6 condition – performance of a contract

3. Who we will share your personal information with?

Your data will be shared with Birmingham Airports appointed contractors which are David Newman Associated Limited and RS Miller Group for the purpose of completing the agreed works.

4. Where your personal information will be stored or transferred to

All your personal information will be kept on the Airports systems in the UK.

5. How long we will keep your personal information for

Your personal data will be stored until your property is eligible for the scheme which is up to a maximum of 5 years. Once your property has been offered works under the scheme it will then be kept for a further 2 years. After this time, we will minimise the personal data we hold on you by securely deleting all but your address and if the works were accepted and completed. This residual information will be held on record for a maximum of 25 years or until the scheme is completed (whichever comes first). This information is required to allow the scheme to be phased and ensure that properties that have already benefitted from the scheme are not offered further works.

6. Your rights

You are entitled to request the following from Birmingham Airport. These are called your Data Subject Rights and there is more information on Birmingham Airports website about each of these and what they mean to you. You can find this information by going to birminghamairport.co.uk/dataprotection

- Right of access
- Right to rectification
- Right to erasure
- Right to restriction of processing
- Right to data portability
- Rights with regards to automated individual decision making, including profiling

Right to object

The right to object is particularly important if we are processing your information under the conditions of a “public task”, or “legitimate interests”, and you can check that information above in section 2. This is because these conditions must be based on not overriding your rights and freedoms against our purposes for using your personal information. If we are using your personal information on these grounds and you wish to object, please contact us on dataprotection@birminghamairport.co.uk

If you have any questions, or wish to contact us and ask us to look at your rights at any time, please contact Birmingham Airports Data Protection Officer on the below details.
